Your Journey

Step aboard at Southampton and enjoy a scenic sail down Southampton Water taking in Netley, Hythe, Hamble-Le-Rice before reaching Calshot Castle, one of Henry VIII's device forts built to guard the entrance to Southampton Water.

Waverley will call at Portsmouth. Keep an eye out for historic ships such as the HMS Victory and modern day Navy ships! Then steam across the Solent, past the the yachting capital of Cowes and along the Hampstead Heritage Coast to your destination, Yarmouth.

Yarmouth on the Isle of Wight has grown up around its natural harbour, guarded by Yarmouth Castle built by Henry VIII in 1547. It has a varied range of shops, cafes and restaurants around the Square area. Those who are more active can walk along the promenade or the old railway track which provides a delightful walk through the woods and along the banks of the River Yar.

When on board Waverley there is so much to see and experience. Don't forget to go below and see the mighty steam engines propelling the famous paddles through the sea: an experience unique to Waverley!

Whilst on board, soak in the unique atmosphere of Waverley, restored to her original 1940s style and roll back time to a by-gone era. Enjoy a coffee and a cake in the Caledonia Tearoom or a drink in the Talisman Bar.

Passengers will disembark and embark at ports Portsmouth but there is not enough time for you to disembark and explore.

History and Heritage

Waverley is the last seagoing Paddle Steamer in the World! When you step aboard you are stepping back to a time when Paddle Steamers were an important part of coastal passenger and excursion trade.

Dating back to the 1800's, this tradition remains alive today only in the operation of Paddle Steamer Waverley. She is Britain's largest interactive exhibit and, onboard, you can learn about Britain's maritime history and its social contribution.

From the heritage craftsmanship, to traditional seafaring skills through to the engineering masterpiece - the triple expansion engine at the heart of the ship turning the famous paddles.

The Captain, Officers & Crew look forward to welcoming you onboard to recapture the nostalgia of bygone days and enjoy a great day out.

Eating & Drinking

Waverley has a restaurant which offers passengers everything from soups, sandwiches, snacks & afternoon tea to a 3-course meal. The menu is available to view on the website and available onboard. You are not permitted to bring alcohol onboard but the ship has two lounge bars and a tearoom. You are welcome to bring packed lunches on board, however you cannot eat these in the ship's Dining Saloon as seats are reserved for passengers purchasing food onboard.

Shopping & Souvenirs

There is a wonderful range of gifts, including exclusive products including clothing, souvenirs and confectionery to suit all tastes & budgets. You can view some of these items at our online shop. To help you get the most out of your cruise, you can also pick up a cruising guide or map. You can even send postcards through the postbox onboard, hand franked with Waverley's stamp!
